METODOLOGÍA / TEACHING METHODOLOGY

Attendance to class is compulsory. Lectures explaining the concepts and the terminology will be delivered to the students. These lectures will be implemented with multimedia presentations, animations, graphs, video clips or any other element that may help understand the main concepts, processes and ideas. Small groups are required to work together, asking questions, giving their opinions, or working on their projects. During the course students will prepare and comment on topics, videos or other media in class or through/on the course virtual platform. This methodology aims at practising both oral and written skills, as well as enhancing both individual and collaborative work.

ACTIVIDADES FORMATIVAS / ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES

- Total number of hours = 75
- Class hours (maximum) = 14
- Virtual platform hours (maximum) = 10
- Student's individual work = 51

Work in class	Hours	Work through the virtual platform	Hours	Student's individual work	Hours

Debates and students' participation	7	Supervising of student's progress by the professor	4	Writing activities, class presentations and additional tasks	20
Tutorials	2	Activities of self-assessment	2	Readings and on-line debates	20
Total number of hours in class	14	Total number of hours through the virtual platform	10	Total number of hours of the student's individual work	51

EVALUACIÓN / ASSESSMENT

Assessment involves the professor asking the student questions and the student giving the answers orally or by writing them down. Active participation in the subject forum and the virtual platform will be taken into account. (25%)

It usually involves a multiple choice, short answer, essay, true/false, fill-in-the-blank, or matching test to show how much the students learned from the materials that were just covered in the class. (25%)

A final written paper and/or a research project proposal. An oral presentation in English will be required. The oral presentation will be scored 50% of the total paper/project marking. (50%)

Students who do not pass in the first opportunity will be able to re-sit in the officially provided second opportunity (date to be agreed upon with the lecturer(s)), when they will be examined to demonstrate that they have acquired the required skills via two types of assessment: a supervised project with the same percentage value and characteristics as in the first opportunity, plus the exercises agreed upon with the lecturer(s) as a substitute for the other activities of the module.

The students officially exempted from class attendance will present a final written paper that will count 100 % of the final mark.

The following aspects will be taken into account for the assessment of this course: Written and oral skills in English, capacity to articulate a hypothesis and its discussion, class attendance and participation in class.
