OBXECTIVOS / OBJECTIVES

Coñecer as principais achegas teóricas sobre os vínculos existentes entre literatura e sociedade, como se representa unha sociedade no universo do literario en canto a concepto, terminoloxía, tipoloxía, aspectos históricos, características principais e metodoloxía(s) de interpretación.

Comprender, analizar e comparar textos (literarios, históricos, culturais, políticos, visuais) representativos de tal relación e reflexionar sobre a interacción co contexto histórico, social e cultural en que se inscribe a súa produción e recepción.

Formular razoamentos críticos derivados da análise dos textos inseridos nun contexto social que conduzan á adquisición dun método sólido de análise socioliteraria que transcenda a mera aproximación intuitiva aos textos obxecto de estudo.

Relacionar textos literarios e outras expresións culturais e artísticas, como pode ser o cine, a música ou a arte coa realidade sociocultural na que se producen.

To become acquainted with the main theoretical contributions to the existing links between literature and society and with the representation of a society within the literary universe, considering the concept, the terminology, the typology, the historical aspects, the main characteristics and the methodology of interpretations.

To understand, analyse and compare literary, historical, cultural, political and visual texts that are representative of the aforementioned links and to reflect on the interaction between the historical, cultural and social context in which the literary production and reception are embedded.

To formulate critical reasoning derived from the analysis of the texts considering their social context. These reasoning must lead to the acquisition of a solid methodology of analysis that would go beyond a simple intuitive approach to the texts object of study.

To relate literary texts and other cultural and artistic expressions such as cinema, music, or art to the sociocultural reality in which they are produced.

CONTIDOS / CONTENTS

A materia aborda as relacións entre literatura e sociedade, prestando especial atención aos contextos políticos e sociohistóricos. Así mesmo, as imbricacións ideolóxicas intertextuais e os aspectos estéticos máis relevantes teranse en conta na análise e discusión dos (con)textos literarios do ámbito anglófono.

The course tackles the relations between literature and society, placing special emphasis on the political and socio-historical contexts. Likewise, the more relevant ideological and inter-textual relations—and also the main aesthetic aspects—will be considered when analysing and/or discussing literary (con)texts of the English-speaking world.
