

Interuniversity Master's Degree in Advanced English Studies and Its Applications

Call for applications for Practicum Placements

ACADEMIC YEAR: 2024-2025

Timeline for this Call:

- Publication of the call: November 26, 2024.
- Application submission period: From November 26 to December 3, 2024.
- Assignment of placements: From December 4 to December 12, 2024.
- Publication of provisional assignments: December 12, 2024.
- Claims against the provisional list: From December 12 to December 17, 2024.
- Publication of the final list: December 19, 2024.

Eligibility Requirements:

1. To be officially enrolled in the Interuniversity Master's Degree in Advanced English Studies and Its Applications.
2. To submit an application to the Deanship Offices ('decanatos') of the Faculties participating in the Master's program to take part in the candidate selection process for internships within the deadlines specified above, attaching:
  - (a) A simple (non-certified) copy of their undergraduate or bachelor's academic transcript (GPA).
  - (b) The form published as Annex I, duly filled out.

Selection Process:

- Students must include in their application form all the companies/institutions where they wish to undertake their internships, ranked in order of preference (a minimum of four).
- The Interuniversity Academic Committee (CAIU) of the master's program will assign placements based on the preferences expressed by the applicants.
- In cases where there are more applicants than available placements in a company/institution, candidates will be ranked based on the average grade of their undergraduate or bachelor's degree academic transcript.

Academic Characteristics, Organization, and Offer:

1. Internships in companies and institutions will have a training purpose.
2. Internships, due to their educational nature as part of the Master's credit system, are considered a course component and, therefore, will not be remunerated.
3. All internships will have a duration of 150 hours and will be equivalent to 6 ECTS. These 150 hours include the time allocated for writing a report on the activities carried out during the internship period. This report must be submitted to the academic supervisor and, along with the evaluation of the work done, will be considered when assessing the internship period.
4. Internships will take place at a schedule agreed upon by the selected candidate and the professional supervisor at the host company or institution. The usual location for the internship will be the headquarters of the company or institution.
